

Congregation Beit Tikvah
COVID-19 Safety Procedures for In-Person Services

- You are welcome to wear a mask if you feel more comfortable doing so.
- Chairs will be arranged 6 feet apart except for families or pod groups.
- If you do not feel well or may be sick, or if you've been exposed to COVID-19 in the past two weeks, please stay home.
- If you develop COVID-19 after visiting Congregation Beit Tikvah, please notify us by email to: info@beittikvah.org.
- Hand shaking and hugging is discouraged among those who are not in your family or pod.
- Only the Rabbi or service leader will touch the Torah. Ritual objects will be cleaned after each use.
- We will do our part to keep all members and guests safe. We thank you for your efforts to protect your safety and those of other members and guests. At the same time, we cannot guarantee that you will not be exposed to COVID-19 at Congregation Beit Tikvah. And, we are not liable if you contract COVID-19 at Congregation Beit Tikvah.
- These Procedures will be revisited as Maryland and Baltimore City change their Protocols.
